Chris Alsbaugh raises immense radishes.

Another change in the Vandalia timetable.

Mr. J. F. Darnall went to Pittsburg Tuesday.

Not a coffin had been sold here in three weeks until Monday.

Mrs. Nannie Cory, of Terre Haute, is in town visiting relatives.

Cloverdale has been made a money-order office, to begin July 1st.

Mrs. John Lundy sends us specimens of the finest strawberries of the season.

Unwashed wool in this market brings from 25 to 30 cents. Tub-washed, 35 to 40 cents.

A five-year-old son of Dr. James B. Robinson, of Fillmore, died Monday of pneumonia following measles.

The Christians of Reelsville have been holding meetings the past week, and have received five or six additions.

If the publication day of the BANNER that waves for all was changed to Saturday, we don't know what the Stereotype would do for locals.

Dr. Smythe was called on Friday to dress the hand of a six-year-old son of Tom Maragry, at Oakalla, that was lacerated in a cutting box.

Miss Alice McMurtry, of Rockville, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. W. Jones. A sister will also arrive from Oxford, Ohio, to-morrow.

The lying in wait on the street by the Stereotype for the customers of the BANNER job printing office, would indicate that he is getting hard up for work.

John L. Gregg had two valuable horses, and Robt. L. Higert one, killed yesterday by the L. N. A. & C. R. They had broken from their pasture, hence their untimely taking off.

Haystack's sawmill has the contract for furnishing 16,000 feet of oak lumber for John Cawley's livery stable. The trees from which the lumber is sawn come from Mr. A. M. Lockridge's farm.

A case of spontaneous combustion occurred in a stove at the carriage factory Thursday night, caused by rags saturated with oil and varnish. Had they not been in a stove, a conflagration would have ensued.

Is the dog ordinance enforced? All the dogs in the county would not pay for the honor of one case of hydrophobia. The best remedies for this disease are cold lead or strychnine administered to the dog before the bite. Try it.

Mr. Jenkins, editor of the Richmond Palladium, passed through the city Saturday on his way to Bloomington, to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the State University, of which he is a member, and gave the BANNER a friendly call.

W. E. Mulhain and Ad. Hanna have bought the furniture establishment of the late W. H. Sherfy, and will hereafter conduct the business. It involved $4,500. They have also bought the establishment of Cookery & Son and consolidated the two.

The late W. H. Sherfy had a policy of $1,500 in the Northwestern, but only gets one-tenth of the amount, the rest having lapsed in consequence of a failure to pay the premium. A $1,000 policy in the same company is good. Also a $4,100 policy in the Masonic Mutual.

A commission of ten ministers of the Indiana and Northwest Indiana Conference will meet here during commencement to decide whether Locust Street Church of this city shall remain in the Northwest Conference or be transferred to the Indiana Conference. The church is anxious for the transfer.

Mr. E. D. Anderson, the retiring member of the board of school trustees of this city, and the treasurer thereof, during his term of service, four years, has turned into the school fund $1,000 received by him as interest on the moneys in his charge. It is said to be the only instance of the kind in the State, and entitles him to great credit. Mr. Anderson has also taken unusual interest in the schools, making their success paramount to his own personal affairs.

A Miss Clark, living with Mr. James Matthews, was accidentally shot Tuesday afternoon, in attempting to remove a small shot-gun from behind the wash-house door, where it had been placed by Walter Matthews, the owner. The hammer had caught in some way, and the piece was discharged, the load of small shot passing through the young lady's clothing and into the left thigh, near the body, making a painful, but not supposed to be a dangerous, wound.

Jones, the barber, is the most successful squirrel hunter in the city.

Edwin Chadwick, of the rolling mill, will go to England on a visit to relatives, in a few weeks.

George A. Rubush, arrested last week on the charge of living in fornication with one Maggie Stutesman, was brought before the Mayor yesterday, and after an examination, acquitted.

There will be a grand union Sunday school celebration at Greencastle on the Fourth of July next. All the schools in the county are cordially invited to attend and participate. Let everybody come and bring their lunch baskets, and enjoy a good old-fashioned "Fourth."

On account of the rain the annual picnic at the Greencastle Springs of the Centenary Church Sunday School, Terre Haute, was postponed from last Saturday until next, when it will positively take place. They will be joined by the Christian, Universalist and Asbury Sunday Schools. The members of the different schools will wear a knot of ribbon tied in the button hole or pinned to the left shoulder. The colors will be as follows: Centenary, red; Universalist, blue; Asbury, pink and white; Christian, red, white and blue.

The Indianapolis Knights of Pythias got up a picnic at Crawfordsville last Thursday and invited their brethren of that place, Greencastle, Covington and Rockville to join them. The invitations were accepted. The Greencastle lodge attended, dressed in uniform, being the only lodge on the grounds in full dress. But the Crawfordsville lodge assumed the management of the affair, assigned the position of honor to themselves, and otherwise treated their visitors very discourteously. The Indianapolis and Greencastle lodges feel indignant, and next time they get up a picnic it will not be located at Crawfordsville. They have had enough of that town.

Last Thursday morning Miss Emma J. Beck, daughter of Rev. S. Beck, pastor of Roberts Chapel, in this city, was married at the parsonage to Rev. J. W. Walker, student of Boston Theological University, and member of the class of '74, Indiana Asbury University. No invitations were given. A number of Miss Beck's young friends were present and beautifully decorated the parlor with flowers. The first letters of the name of the bride party, W. B., in evergreens and flowers, were fastened to the wall above their heads. The bride's father pronounced the ceremony. After receiving congratulations the bride party went immediately to the Vandalia depot, where they took the 8:30 train for Indianapolis, and thence to the home of Mr. Walker's parents, near Zionsville. They have many friends here, all of whom unite in wishing them a long life and happiness.

Asbury University.
The annual lecture will be delivered next Sunday afternoon in McHenry Hall, at 4:15 o'clock, by Rev. H. B. Ridgeway, D. D., of Cincinnati.

Prof. J. V. Martin is at home again, having closed a very successful year's work in the educational field at Atlanta Ga. Prof. Martin will not return south, having been engaged already as Superintendent of Booneville, Ind., schools.

Hon. Will. C. C. C. is the champion commencement lecturer. He was invited to deliver the university lecture by five of our leading western colleges. Not being empowered with ubiquity he was able to accept, in connection with his duties here as trustee, only three, viz: Indiana State University, Hanover, and Cornell College, Iowa.

Eight Freshmen, two ladies inclusive, are contending for the Clout Latin prize.

Prof. Earp is spending commencement at his Alma Mater, McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill., which is at present presided over so efficiently by Dr. Locke.

The attendance at commencement here this year promises to be unusually full upon the part of old students and friends. More and more every year is Asbury becoming the Mecca of Western Methodism.

Prof. Barker's lecture on Physical Degeneracy reflected great credit on him, and it is already safe to say that the Professor will be heard from in the future in his chosen field of natural science. He will spend the vacation in explorations either in the far west or through the cotton states or original ground.

This evening "the band begins to play," the first exercise of commencement being a representative one of the Preparatory Department.

My saw-mill is near the north depot; my lumber yard and office at the north end of College avenue, near Goulding & Ireland's planing mill. I am always ready to buy Poplar, Walnut or Ash timber anywhere within six or eight miles of me. At my lumber yard, I keep a stock of shingles, lath, dressed flooring and weather-boarding, which I either sell for cash or trade for timber. Custom sawing done to order at my mill. If you want to sell or buy don't fail to call on me.

The catalogue for 1876-77 will appear this week. It will contain 75 pages, and shows a very gratifying growth in the University and its various departments. The faculty will also issue a supplementary edition of 500 copies, including the Triennial matter of last year revised and corrected.

Capt. Wheeler and the cadet battalion have received an invitation to be present at the old settlers picnic in Hendricks county next Saturday. They will not be able, however, to accept, in view of examinations.

The prophet of this department is again proven correct in his predictions of the ravages of Cupid. One half has already been verified by the facts, and if our readers will look keenly, as well as sharp, all will be realized.

Mrs. Myrtle Bassett, nee Miss Myrtle Nebeker, until last January identified with the class of '77, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gen. Washburn, having arrived from her Texas home Saturday.

Rev. J. W. Harris, of the Senior class, has been having a great red ribbon revival in his work in Clay County.

At last we have the satisfaction of announcing that the mechanics have completed the new college building and handed the keys over to the trustees.

Prof. McNutt distributed his mathematical medals this week. J. H. Neff received the first prize. The other three were given to Messrs. Rawls and Crouch and Miss Downey. They are of gold. On the face appears the following: "Mathematical Medal, I. A. U. '77." On the reverse—"P. McNutt."

The seniors are returning daily and by Saturday will all be here. All will be present at the Baccalaureate Sunday morning.

Miss Alice O. Allen, a class '71, and during the past year principal of the Attica schools, has returned home. She is accompanied by a Miss Diamond of that place.

The salutatory of Miss Fisher, of the Senior class, will be in Greek, and that of Miss Washburn in Latin.

Col. W. R. Edwards, of Terre Haute, and Capt. Wheeler's wife, mother and other friends of the University from that city, will visit Greencastle during commencement.

The Faculty Room is to be known hereafter as "D. L. Southard Hall," a recognition of the faithful and untiring zeal of that gentleman in behalf of the college which is timely and appropriate.

The address before the Society of Alumni will be pronounced this year by C. W. Smith, A. M. class of '67. No poem. The Society will banquet at the Grand Central, for boniface Woolrich catering.

For eminent skill in theology, law, pedagogy, medicine, etc., etc., we respectfully refer all interested to the members of the class of '77 after Thursday, June 21st.

The President's new residence, and that of Prof. Bassett on Anderson street, are rapidly approaching completion.

Miss Mary C. Hoyt, class of '74, who has been associated with the faculty of Bartholomew's Classical School at Cincinnati, is at home to spend the vacation. She arrived Friday.

A team belonging to Black Brothers was left unhitched in front of the Central House yesterday afternoon, and ran away, going South on College Avenue. In front of the residence of Dexter Cutler it ran into the carriage of Mrs. Howard Briggs, throwing her and her little son to the sidewalk, considerably damaging the carriage, which is a new vehicle just from Chicago, and aming the horse. Mrs. Briggs alighted on some stones, and received a severe cut on the forehead, but was otherwise unhurt. It was a narrow escape.

Enough to Kill a Democrat.
LONDON, June 8.—On the 23d Gen. Grant will dine with Prince of Wales. This will be the grandest entertainment of Gen. Grant's visit in point of rank of guests. The date of the dinner with Earl Derby is not fixed in consequence of the absence of the Countess of Derby. Neither is the date of the Queen's dinner fixed, on account of her Majesty's absence. Earl Beaconsfield's dinner has been declined on account of other engagements. The ex-President takes precedence at every entertainment of all others of the royal family. Gen Grant will leave London on the 27th of June, and probably go to Paris.

Great preparations are being made at Guildhall for the reception of Gen. Grant on Friday. The General, on his arrival, will be received by the Lord Mayor and Corporation, and be conducted to the library, where the Chamberlain of London will present him the freedom of the city, accompanied by an appropriate address. Upward of 800 guests will be invited to meet the General at breakfast, which follows the ceremony. The Queen's ball and concert at Buckingham Palace has been postponed, the former until June 22, and the latter until June 27, in consequence of the funeral of the Queen of the Netherlands.

Earl Granville will preside at the banquet to be given by the Reform Club to Gen. Grant.

Deputy Sheriff John M. Cleary, of Terre Haute, was shot down Friday night by Ernest Whitehouse, whom he had arrested for robbing the grocery of Patrick Hickey the evening previous. Whitehouse had returned his share of the booty, and was accompanying the officer in search of his accomplice, when he suddenly drew a revolver and shot him down, inflicting two fatal wounds. He escaped.

Hungry Hendricks.
Indianapolis Herald.
The friends of ex-Governor Hendricks gave him a send-off at the Hotel Bates last night. There was plenty of speech-making, some music, but no eating. He was sent off with a full heart but an empty stomach, to the air of "Tommy Make Room for Your Uncle."

The Illinois Industrial University will graduate about forty students this year.

Seventy-five cents will pay for the BANNER the rest of 1877.

If you want handbills, etc., distributed to suit you, call on Wilbur Sheridan at the BANNER office.

The First Presbyterian Church, Terre Haute, will run an excursion to St. Louis over the Vandalia line, June 23. Tickets good on any regular train of that day, to return on any train of the 25th or 26th. Fare for the round trip $5. For particulars address Rev. Alex. Sterrett or W. W. Byers.

The Swiss Ague Tonic never fails. Thousands of people who have been pronounced incurable have found permanent health by using the Swiss Ague Cure. It gives satisfaction all over the land. Ask J. Allen and C. Cook, druggists, for it.

Darnall Bros. have just received a supply of Dobbins' Electric Starch Polish. This superior polish gives a brilliant appearance to linen, and also adds to its stiffness. See advertisement in this paper.
